TALK 'ROUND THE ROW

THE BELLAMY BROTHERS COUNTRY MUSIC DUO MAKES HISTORY BY SCORING THE TOP 3 SLOTS ON EUROPE'S HOTDISC CHART

The Bellamy Brothers have achieved another first; they dominate the Top 3 on this week's Hotdisc Chart. The chart is compiled by the top DJs who vote for their favorite cuts from the current Hotdisc releases which are being promoted in Europe. The DJs themselves get together to voice their approval of the new songs by rating each new record out of 10, and the Bellamy Brothers' duet with Alan Jackson, "You Ain't Just Whistlin' Dixie" has received a huge 8.86% rating across the board from this week's DJ reports, the second highest score since the Hotdisc chart began. The Bellamy's new entry at #1 with Alan Jackson is not the complete story for them this week. That song knocked their own "Let Your Love Flow" (recorded with Lisa Brokop and Hal Ketchum) off the top spot as it slips to #3, and their other plug track from their current CD "Angels & Outlaws Vol.1", namely "Old Hippie" (another collaboration - this time with Montgomery Gentry), slides in at #2 this week.
